Fresh Metal with lots of surprises

AGENTPUNCH is a heavy metal band from Osnabrück/Germany that was founded in 2016 by Alexander Mohrlang (vocals), Roman Felde (guitar), Juri Felde (bass) and Tomasz Kosma (drums).

The four musicians are stylistically most rooted in classical metal. However, their music is not suitable for a simple categorization. Without losing their face, their character, they play their way through the history of rock and metal, always keeping in mind what makes them want the most at any given moment; whether it's punk, hard or prog rock elements, speed or trash metal nuances, is completely secondary. Neither do AGENTPUNCH reinvent the wheel nor do they just recreate it. Those who expect a special sense of style from this band will surely be disappointed. But if you like good, fresh Heavy Metal and don't shy away from one or the other surprise, you will love this band.
